BRISBANE PUTS ON BIG TIME ON FOURTH OF JULY

Crowning Of Queen, Pageant And Oratory Provide Entertainment For Multitude

While other towns depopulated themselves in search of amusement or comfort over the Fourth of July, Brisbane stayed at home and put on its own celebration, as it has always done in past years.

The celebration covered a period of three days—July 2, 3 and 4. It was sponsored and conducted by the Brisbane Fire Department, whose members have had charge of similar community affairs for several years.

The festivities were ushered in Saturday evening by the crowning of the queen for the occasion in the person of Miss Eva Woods. The crowning was capably and efficiently performed, after a few appropriate remarks, by Judge Wade H. Clay, justice of the First Township. After the ceremony, Judge Clay, who was guest of honor, escorted Queen Eva through the grand march, followed by the fire department and auxiliary members. The women of the auxiliary were beautiful in their uniforms of white, and bright red capes and jaunty caps to match. Lawrence Mills of the fire department was master of ceremonies.

The Sunday festivities consisted of dancing and an amateur contest.

On Monday, the Fourth of July, there was a grand parade, in which most all of the civic and fraternal bodies took part. The Non-Partisan League won first prize for the best float and the Shoemaker won the second. Ribbons were awarded to

COUNTY WATER COLLECTORS TO BE INVESTIGATED

One District Employe Suspended By Board Of Supervisors

The San Mateo County Board of Supervisors suspended Alfred Winter as collector of the Willow road county water district, at their session, Tuesday morning of this week, and appropriated $500 for an exhaustive investigation of the district's financial affairs and operation. This action was taken at the request of the county grand jury.

Winters is under fire in the grand jury probe of the collection of water bills and deposits with the county controller.

Notifying Winters of his suspension the board ordered him to turn all records over to the district attorney "without delay."

Records sought by the jury showing collections over a period of nearly two years, have been destroyed by fire, according to the prosecutor's office.

The high tax rate of the Willow Road Water district is out of all proportion to the revenue derived from consumers, Assistant District Attorney Daniel E. Sullivan said.

"The district has a tax rate which is much too high when the revenue possibilities are taken into consideration," he said. "A rate of 38 cents was levied against the district's taxpayers last year, which is in addition to the revenue collected. The district buys water at the rate of 19 cents

Romance Is Denied, But Not Strongly

When Geraldine Spreckels, divorced wife of Adolph Spreckels, Jr., was interviewed, recently, she admitted she and Charlie Chaplin were "very good friends" that it would be nice for any one to be Mrs. Chaplin and still further confessed, "I don't suppose he will ask me to marry him."

Hollywood is rumoring, however, that there is a romance between her and the film comedian. Her divorce will become final, November of this year.

HIGHWAY POLICE TO ENFORCE ALL STICKER LAWS

All officers of the California Highway Patrol are strictly enforcing windshield sticker regulations, Chief E. Raymond Cato pointed out this week in advising all motorists to use discretion in the use of stickers.

In explanation, the chief said: 'The Motor Vehicle Code specifically states that no sticker or stickers shall cover an area in excess of seven inches by seven inches in the lower corner of the windshield farthest removed from the driver.

"The Code definitely prohibits the use of stickers on either rear or side windows of a car.

"In a campaign year many motorists place stickers on their cars but they should be careful to see that these stickers comply with Code requirements and that the placement meets the specifications."

All tourists are urged to keep these regulaitons in mind and it is pointed out that an offense against this section of the code is a misdemeanor.

ORGANIZATION FOR PROMOTION IS EXPANDING

California Mission Trails Association To Open Office In San Francisco

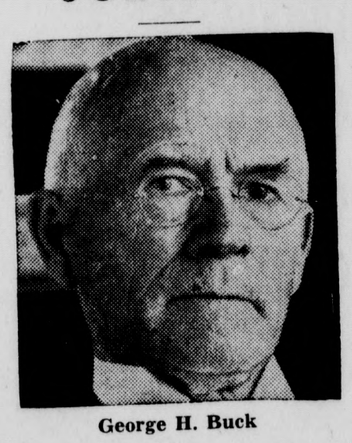
The California Mission Trails Association, the tourist promotion organization serving this territory, will open an office in the Plaza Hotel in San Francisco this week.

H. W. Horrworth, secretary-manager, advises that, due to the additional duties of the organization handling the Mission Trails Exposition building and exhibits, this new office is made a necessity.

"In addition to the Exposition affairs, we feel that the influx of tourists into San Francisco from the North and East should be told of the beauties of our area and we know from our past success in the South that many thousands of northern visitors can be influenced to vacation in the Mission Trails counties. It is our job to contact these prospects and we mean to do just that."

The establishment of the San Francisco office will provide an additional base of operation from which literature may be dispensed to over 300 points of distribution in northern California, Washington and Oregon, as well as providing an outlet for publicity in San Francisco designed to promote vacationists into the Mission Trails counties from the bay area.

NONAGENARIAN JURIST DIES



George H. Buck

George H. Buck, 91, former superior court judge on the San Mateo, Cal., county bench, who died at his home in Redwood City, Cal. COUNT'S THREAT TO HARM BARBARA TOLD AS COUPLE MEET IN COURT

Countess Barbara Hutton Haugwitz Reventlow, who recently appeared in a London court against her husband after he had allegedly threatened her life and "demanded five million dollars." According to witnesses the count was quoted as saying he had been "insulted" by an offer of $250,000 from the countess. W. W. Mitchell, a solicitor, testified the count schemed to kidnap his son, threatened to "put Barbara on the spot" and demanded $5,000,000 in settlement. The court was also told that Count Reventlow did not consider the countess' (London) Winfield House a suitable place for their son, Lance, to be reared. Photo shows Countess Barbara at left and her small son at right.

COUNTY CLERK WARNS VOTERS

County Clerk W. H. Augustus this week warned San Mateo County voters that July 21 is the last day to register or to change party affiliations for the August 30 primary election.

The warning was particularly applicable, he said, to all voters who have changed their residence address, or those who wish to change their party affiliations.

He also pointed out that persons who have changed their residence addresses since they last registered should reregister promptly, if they wish to vote this year.

All city clerks have been appointed registration deputies, and additional deputies are in the field. The county clerk's office in Redwood City is registration headquarters.

MEET FEATURED BY DEVELOPMENT OF YOUNG DOGS

Sensational Greyhounds Fast Rounding Into Best Form At Baden

One of the most sensational young dogs in the history of greyhound racing on the Pacific Coast has been developed at Baden Kennel Club in Rural Rebel, yet to reach the peak of his ability.

Only 21 months old, the pup has proved a sensation. Racing dogs seldom reach their fastest form until the age of three years.

Rural Rebel is owned by R. C. Davis of San Francisco and is a son of one of the most famuos of all track dogs, Traffic Officer.

Development of young dogs has proved to be the outstanding feature of the 1938 South San Francisco meeting. Among the other pups which have repeatedly shown in the winner's circle are Laddy's Honor, a son of the 1932 world champion at Baden, owned by Mrs. Lyle Green of Piedmont; Mighty Black, a son of Nigger Officer-Mia Bella; Bluffing Bee, daughter of Bluffing Officer and co-holder of the Baden track record for the futurity hurdle.

But Rural Rebel tops them all with a record of five wins in his first six starts against the speed dogs of the Pacific Coast.

Owners of all of the California bred two year olds and under are pointing for the California Derby, $1000 added, to be run next month.

BRISBANE TEAM SWAMPS THE SUNSET A C

Behind "Dutch" Strassburger's steady pitching, the Brisbane ball team rambled to an easy victory over the Sunset A. C. last Sunday. The score was 13 to 0.

Strassburger fanned 16, allowed three hits and was never in trouble throughout the game.

SCORE EARLY

Brisbane stepped out early in the game and put across a run when Freddie Radoff poked a single through the infield and scored standing up when Brisbane's powerhouse Lou "Porky" Pierri blasted a two-bagger into left.

The second inning produced another run for Brisbane when Jack Corrigan singled, stole second, went to third while Dave Miller was being thrown out at first and scored when an attempt was made to get him at third.

BATTING SPREE

Sunset's hurler after a good showing in the third was pounced on by the Brisbane boys in the fourth.

Pierri walked, Harran forced Pierri out at second, George Radoff was safe on an error, Jack Corrigan was safe on an error, Dave Miller hit to the shortstop, forcing Radoff at the plate, then a series of basehits by Bill Strassburger, Roy Edwards, Fred Radoff, Wes McIntosh, Lou Pierri, Jack Harran and Jack Corrigan sewed the game up with enough runs to win three ball games.

SUNSET COLLAPSES

Sunset's hardest hit ball in the game came in the eighth, when Yaw blasted a drive down the left field line that looked like a sure two bagger, but George Radoff, after a nice run, took it with a neat back hand stop.

Sunset finally gave up the ghost in the last of the eighth by shoving in a southpaw chucker. Brisbane's wrecking crew immediately knocked him for a loop.

Lou Pierri walked, Harran singled, George Radoff singled, Corrigan struck out, Dave Miller was hit by a pitched ball, scoring Pierri, Bill Strassburger out at first, scoring Harran, and Roy Edwards cleaned the bags with a two-bagger to end the scoring.

Quite a number of Brisbane fans were on hand to see the boys win. Hal Drummond and Gordon Lummis helped keep the boys fighting while the players wives razzed the opponents and kept them off form with their hip, hip, hip, hip.

INQUEST HELD IN MYSTERY DEATH

David Gray

"The deceased came to his death from a gunshot wound of the chest, inflicted by an unidentified person with homicidal intent." That was the verdict given by a Los Angeles coroner's jury at the inquest over the mysterious death of King D. Gray, Hollywood ace cameraman. Only clues left were a 32 caliber shell and a letter addressed "Dear Daddy." The letter was found on the dead man's body. Photo shows David Gray, son of the victim, intently listening at the inquest.

COUNTY BOARD WILL PURCHASE RIGHT OF WAY

Gas Tax Funds Voted To Be Used To Buy Land For Geneva Avenue Widening

The San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, at the meeting, Tuesday of this week, ordered an appropriation of $5000 from the county's road department's gas tax to acquire rights of way preparatory to improving the Bayshore City thoroughfare by widening Geneva avenue.

The opinions on this proposition resulted in a division of the board, the vote for acquisition being three in favor and one against with one member being absent.

Supervisor James S. James opposed the appropriation for the reason that there was no definite agreement for sharing the costs of construction, and declared that the money should not be taken from the overburdened gas tax account for county road maintenance and construction. He also said the time was not propitious for such action now.

Supervisor Alvin Hatch, Half Moon May, moved to adopt the recommendation of County Engineer Urban S. Marshall that the county aid the project. "I don't agree with Supervisor James," said Hatch. "I think now is the time to buy the rights of way. There is no other fund from which to take the money."

This summer, parties will ride through five of the most spectacular wilderness areas administered by Forest Service rangers. The California trip will be in the High Sierra Primitive Area of the Inyo, Sierra and Sequoia National Forests.

The first Trail Riders expedition ever to enter this scenic region will start from Bishop and ascend the High Sierra to explore the mountainous region along the John Muir Trail to Mt. Whitney, highest peak in continental United States, and then ride to Lone Pine in the Inyo Valley.

ROCKAWAY BEACH PEDRO VALLEY

By C. H. T.

It was a grand Fourth! Cars lined up at all the coastside beach resorts. An unending stream of automobiles on the No. 1 highway. Picnic parties enjoying the beaches. A scene of gaiety throughout the entire day. With certain notable exceptions. One of these brought anxiety to many observers, distress and serious injury to at least two people in its course. A young man riding a motorcycle, tore along the local roads, with frequent upsets that, miraculously, failed to knock him out, although they did succeed in knocking him off. The man is reported to have been intoxicated. He had to be helped to the seat of his motorcycle. He was in no condition to control it. After several tumbles, he set off for the city, with his girl companion perched precariously behind him. The bystanders who had held the cycle while he groped to the saddle and grabbed the bars, watched the pair wobble out of sight. A few miles beyond, after endangering several other machines, the cycle crashed into a highway fence, wrecking the machine and sending the youth and his girl to the hospital. Up to now information is not fully available as to the names and condition of those injured. But the accident, so easily preventable, is typical. This young man fancied himself "smart," "daring," with the youthful recklessness popular among a certain class of the younger generation. But the truth is, he was not smart. He was just plain dumb. He was ignoring the ordinary facts. Perhaps he might have hooted at any man who was trying to dip all the water out of the sea by ladling it out with a spoon; or one who jumped gaily from a twenty story building, and expected to land on the pavement without a scratch; or an optimist who thrust his hand into the fire, expeceting that the flame would not burn it. These are fairly obvious facts. But the facts regarding drunk drivers are quite as obvious to all except those who refuse to face them. Sensible people know that the odds are terribly against the drunken driver. He might as well try to drive blindfolded, his ears stuffed with cotton, his muscles incapacitated, his customary driving skill on the skids, as to safely control a machine when he has over-indulged in liquor.

And so this thoroughly dumb and stupid young man, incapable of sane commonsense direction, took the life of himself and of his girl friend, as well as the lives of everyone he met, or passed on the road, into his foolish hands, against every proven fact.

This is no prohibition lecture. It is only an appeal to reason, good citizenship, and ordinary fair play. All men have an inalienable right to get just as drunk as they please. But that right ends at the point where such intoxication endangers other people. Verbum sap!

And now let's conclude the preachment, and get on with our neighborhood news.

Jim Troglia of Rockaway celebrated the holiday by taking his two daughters, Florence and Annabelle, on a three-day trip to Big Basin, National Park, a camping ground in the depths of primeval forest. Here the Troglias spent a delightful time with friends who had arranged to meet them.

Captain and Mrs. Dunnigan stayed at their Rockaway home, Snug Harbor, and entertained what someone called "a bushel of company," the said bushel including something like eighteen, or twenty guests, who enjoyed a barbecue dinner and a jolly picnic.

The Forrest Cubbons of Pedro had as guests for the Fourth, Mrs. Marie Davis and Steven Goodman of San Francisco.

The Herman Bryants, who recently were honor guests at a luncheon under the big top of the most famous circus in the country, had still another gastronomic adventure on the Fourth, when Mr. Bryant and his family were invited to a turkey dinner at the Presidio. (And, by the way, isn't this reversing the customary order? If the Bryants had turkey on July Fourth, will they have fireworks on Christmas?)

Mr. and Mrs. Casanova of Pedro Valley (the real Pedro Valley, with two sides to it) motored to Oakland to spend the Fourth at the home of their married daughter and her husband. The day marked a pleasant family get-together which was deeply enjoyed. The Casanovas have another daughter who has a position on the staff of a San Francisco Italian newspaper. The son, who is well known here for his musical gifts, has an orchestra which is greatly in demand at festive occasions. The Casanovas have a little granddaughter, of whom they are very proud, the child of the elder daughter.

Edgar Bailey came up by train from San Diego, where he is employed in making airplanes, to stay over the weekend with his family, returning Sunday evening, to the south. Edgar and his wife, Pauline, have a fine little baby son.

Mrs. Jennie Bicknell and her sister Mrs. Ann Henderson suffered a serious bereavement in the death of their brother, Ronald J. Gillis, of Portland, Oregon. Mr. Gillis passed away suddenly with a heart ailment, Wednesday, June 29. Only a few hours previous to receiving the telegram that announced her brothers death, Mrs. Bicknell was looking over some family group photographs that were taken last summer, while Mr. Gillis and his wife and son were visiting here and meeting in a happy reunion, his sisters and brothers and their children. Mrs. Bicknell was unable to leave her store, but Mrs. Henderson drove up to Portland for the services.

The Peter Haugaards entertained guests on the Fourth, including Mr. and Mrs. McKinley and several others.

Gus Krieps, formerly of the White House at Rockaway, has been taken into partnership with Harry Rees, at the Rees Tavern. A well equipped kitchen and outdoor dining-room is being added, over which Gus will preside as chef. More about this later.

Girls! What Do You Think Of It?

A noted psychologist of Chicago declared, recently, that women wear the kind of hats they do because mentally they never grow up. A professor of Northwestern University declared the peculiar mental quirk might be traced to the time the little girl slips on big sister's shoes and wishes she was old enough to go out with boys. The little maid grows into a big girl, but she never gets over that feeling of inferiority. The result is a nature half child and half adult, in one instant a sophisticated individual and at the next a youngster weeping over a matter which to men would appear trivial.

The tendency to copy big sister leads on into bceoming a slave of fashion. Many of the latest fads are hardly of a nature to attract or to increase the woman's appeal. The professor believes that nothing is more ludicrous than to behold tall duncelike hats upon the heads of women whose height of stature forbids anything other than a flat hat with a wide brim.

Seattle Man Held By Insurgents May Soon Be Released

J. H. Jenkins

J. H. Jenkins of Seattle, held prisoner by the Spanish insurgents, may be freed in a possible exchange of prisoners with the Barcelona government. "EXCURSION" TO BE NEXT PLAY AT THE ALCAZAR

"No More Frontier" Closes Successful Two Weeks Run Saturday Night

"Excursion," rated by leading New York critics as one of the ten best plays of the New York season last year will be the next offering of the Federal Theater at the Alcazar beginning next Monday, July 11. Directed by Alan Williams, who was responsible for the comedy success "Squaring The Circle," a cast of sixty will appear in "Excursion." The play is by Victor Wolfson.

The entire locale of the play is aboard an excursion steamer under the command of a compassionate, sympathetic old salt (Rupert Drum), who has sailed his ship for thirty years on just such Sunday excursions down to Coney Island. This trip was to be the last before the boat is laid up for dismantling. With an understanding pity for his passengers, who so desperately depend on such brief trips for their unfulfilling recreation, the captain decides to take the whole sweltering crew on a real trip into a land of sunshine and romance, to a far away isle in the Carribean. The outcome provides situations aplenty that are seldom seen on a theater stage—situations of touching, whimsical comedy, stirring drama.

Others in the cast beside Mr. Drum are J. Raymond Northcutt, Ivan Markoff, Joseph Jacoby, Marie Burton, James Stott, William Ashbury, Solly Carter, Marta Duffy, the usual excursion boat's dance band and male quartette and many others.

"No More Frontier," historic drama of one family's partin the winning of the Old West closes Saturday night after a highly successful two weeks run.

NEW COUNTY CONSTRUCTION AT STATE FAIR

New artistry, new plans and new motifs are being written into every phase of new county exhibits under construction at the California State Fair in order that they will reflect California's unprecedented yearly agricultural income of approximately $750,000,000.

A speed-up of the fair organization has been ordered by SecretaryManager Robert Muckler to insure completion of the board's largest program for the eighty-fourth annual exposition at Sacramento, September 2 through September 11.

Livestock, poultry, farm machinery and dairy products are divisions of the California agricultural exposition, but are treated as separate shows. Each one of these departments soon will announce programs for the ten day fair.

Women Students Learn To Sail

Completion of Berkeley's aquatic park a little more than a year ago, has made it possible for women at the University of California to learn to tack, and to trim sail. The park is situated near the city's water front, about a mile from the campus. A class in yachting has been formed and its members now operate twelve small sailboats on Friday of each week.

About 30 are enrolled in the course, which is a part of the activities of the Women's Athletic Association. Students are taught to handle small sailing craft under adverse as well as favorable weather conditions, says Miss Isabell Kane, instructor. Members of the class will take part in a prize regatta to be held at the close of the spring semester.

COUNTY BOARD WILL PURCHASE RIGHT OF WAY

cided with the opinion expressed by Supervisor Hatch.

All the members agreed there must be a definite agreement by the city and county of San Francisco to undertake the construction work before the $5000 is actually paid.

Geneva avenue is the main approach from Bayshore highway to the $2,500,000 Visitacion valley livestock pavilion of Agricultural district 1-A.

Supervisiors Hatch and Poole argued that the San Francisco portion of Geneva avenue had been reconstructed and that San Mateo County should do its share. The board's action followed favorable recommendation from Engineer U. S. Marshall.

Concensus of opinion, Marshall reported, is that San Francisco would do the construction, or form a joint district with Bayshore City. The job would include removal of the street car tracks from the southerly San Francisco limits to Bayshore highway. The need remains for the county's acquisition of the right of way, Marshall declared.

Coast Speed Skaters Vie For Roller Skating Derby Honors

Ten boy and girl roller skating teams recently began a 2000 mile whirl to nowhere as the first Roller Derby was introduced in San Francisco. Roller derbies are the latest product of "this speed age." Unlike dance marathons, walkathons and six day bicycle races, the contestants only take the floor from 8 o'clock until midnight each evening. The favorite team is Wes Aronson and Joyce Bullock who were first to register. Aronson is known as the "Portland Flier" and considered by experts as one of the greatest roller skaters in the world. Photo shows three of the "main eventers" warming up, left to right are, Wes Aronson, Pacific Coast champion; Bill Bogash, international titleholder, and Joe Nigra, Italian speedster.

Liberty WAS NEVER EXTINGUISHED Over Night

FREE GOVERNMENT gives way to dictatorship by gradual stages. In every country where dictators now oppress a regimented people, the death of freedom was preceded by two significant steps. First, newspapers were throttled, terrorized, and censored into subservience. Second, the voice of the people became mute, and instead there is heard the voice of interested government propaganda. Free expression of public opinion became illegal and autocracy now tells the people what to think. Opposition has become hopeless because it has become inarticulate. America is still the land of individual liberty . . . but Americans cannot remain a free people unless freedom of the press continues. Regardless of what your own political convictions may be, you and your newspapers are partners in safeguarding the American democratic ideal. Support your newspaper—protect its independence and vitality—for its welfare is your welfare—its freedom is your freedom.

Supervisor Uhl and Judge Golden, who were chairmen of this affair, congratulated the dance studio for its fine array of talent and the gorgeous costumes worn.

His assistant will also be hired to interview consumers in the district to determine what bills they paid over a certain period."

In moving for the transfer of $500 from the sheriff's investigation account to the district attorney's investigation fund for the Willow Road Water probe, Supervisor James J. James of Burlingame criticized the board's "negligence" in failing to keep a closer watch on the finances of the assessment districts.

"The board has been negligent with regard to these districts, and has paid little attention to their books," he said. "We should work hand in hand with the grand jury in this case."

FORMER DALY CITY MERCHANT DEAD IN SOUTH

The many friends of Harold M. Cahn, 52, of San Diego, were shocked to hear of his untimely death on July 3.

Mr. Cahn, manager of a show house in that city, was delivering circulars when he was struck by an automobile and sustained fatal injuries. Within two hours of the time the unfortunate man left his home he had passed to the great beyond.

His sister left by plane, Tuesday of this week, to attend the funeral.

The other surviving relatives are his widow, Jane, and a daughter, Muriel.

Funeral services were conducted in La Mesa, Wednesday morning of this week at 10 o'clock.

WORLD LARGEST OUTDOOR WHIST PARTY AT RIPON

The date of the tenth annual "World's Largest Outdoor Card Party" to be held at Ripon, has been set for Saturday evening, July 23, starting at 8:30 p. m.

The Ripon Post American Legion sends word, they expect between 8000 and 10,000 visitors this year, and are preparing to handle this largest of large card parties. Sixteen hands of whist will be played. Arrangements are being made to entertain the non-card players, by having a dance in an adjoining hall and a carnival and free attractions.

This novel affair, started ten years ago, has grown too big to be handled by the Legion Post alone. It is now virtually a community affair, several other organizations of the town taking an active part in offering California one of the most unique events ever staged.

Tables will be placed in an open space of about two acres, over which lights will be suspended illuminating the entire section as brightly as day.

Ripon residents have asked the weather man for a typical California summer evening, however, if there should be a little breeze, windbreaks will be installed for the comfort of the players.
